TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22d, 1873,

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State: Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

Thursday, November 27th, 1873, as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day, and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday, November 5th, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.

Thurman or Who?

Is the distinction of being beaten as a candidate for President one worth disputing about? This is what the jarring compounds which compose the opposition party are now, to some extent, doing. "Up with Thurman" is the cry of that party which used to be called the unterrified, but for which a better name now would be the hopeless.—"No dead men, give us somebody who is alive," is responded from the other wing, which calls itself Liberal, but which ought to be known as the desiring. There is but little that they do not desire in the line of office. For this greed they stand prepared to sacrifice the former principles which they professed, and surrender all past connections. The Democrats have a past glory which yet sheds a departing light upon all who are in earnest in their allegiance to that party, but what, in the past or in the present, have the other malcontents to offer, who are opposed to Republican supremacy? It is but the cry for office which has ever importunated the people, from those who have not got it; and as they have nothing to back them in their claim, they can only raise the cry of corruption against officeholders.

It certainly makes but little difference who is set up, to be knocked down. As all the marshalled hosts of opposition cannot elect a President, it is not very dignified to disagree about impossibilities.

Beauties of the Opposition.

A fiendish outrage reported from Louisiana, gives certain newspapers of the Odds-and-Ends party an opportunity to abuse Congress, the President, and the Republicans generally. Such impetuosity in rushing to an attack, betrays a forlorn hope indeed. How can thinking men regard a party which resorts to such childish shifts to make capital? To make an issue with such eel-like partisans—resembling that fish in their slime and sliperiness—is impossible, and they betray the weakness of their resources, by resorting to such unworthy diatribes.

When an opportunity to investigate the shocking affair is presented, and its truth is proven, if even an inadequate punishment follows, then much may be said of a government which permits such miscreants to go unhanged. But till it is evident that nothing is to be expected to vindicate justice, such stuff as that the outrage was the direct result of Federal usurpation, is the most unadulterated nonsense which has been paraded before the country for many a day.

Upon the whole, we cannot say but that it is almost matched by most of the positions taken by the Olla Podrida party. Being at their wits end for some thunderbolt to launch at the Republicans, they sieze with avidity anything that comes along, and sometimes their bolt turns out a boomerang.

Try again, gentlemen, Cæsarism has been laughed out of life, and this, your latest move, cannot decieve anybody. Your efforts, if continued in this direction, will soon earn you the title of Artful Dodgers or Industrious Fleas.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The trouble between the employees and the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad Company, is unadjusted. The men obstruct the running of freight trains, but there is no interference with passenger or mail trains.

— General Joe Johnston is credited with an intention to publish an account of the events preceding his removal from command of the rebel forces operating against General Sherman. Such a book from his pen will not tend to add to Jeff. Davis' peace of mind by any means.

— The most extensive family wedding on record occurred the other day in Cincinnati. A widowed mother, three sons and two daughters were all married at once. The cost of the rites was put at wholesale prices. It is observed sagely by a local newspaper that perhaps this is the commencement of a system of domestic economy which will save many a sixpence for a rainy day.

— The Washington Republican says: "A Chicago paper hopes that a Washington dispatch announcing that Captain Jack's head had been pickled and sent to the Smithsonian Institute is untrue. It is. The dispatch in question is a fair sample of the reports sent out from Newspaper Row in regard to Washington affairs and the condition of the District. In all probability Hinton is the author of it.

— Notwithstanding the depression in financial circles the business at the Patent Office still continues to increase with the approach of the winter. During the past week a larger number of applications for inventions has been placed on file than any previous week since spring. So great, indeed, is the business transacted at this department of the Government that more room for the same is becoming an actual necessity. This, of course, revives the possibility of the erection of a new Post Office building, and the appropriation of the old one for the purpose of the Patent Office. It is understood that the matter last referred to will be brought to the attention of Congress during the coming session.

— Disraeli, the Tory leader of the House of Commons, says of his rival's (Gladstone's) policy:

"For nearly five years the present Ministers have harassed every trade, worried every profession, and assailed or menaced every class, institution, and species of property in the country. Occasionally they have varied this state of civil warfare by perpetrating some job which outraged public opinion, or by stumbling into mistakes, which have been always discreditable and sometimes ruinous. All this they call a policy, and seem quite proud of it; but the country has, I think, made up its mind to close this career of plundering and blundering."

— There is a band of about sixty persons on Terry Island, in the Connecticut river, who claim to be Adventists, and have assembled there to await the coming of the Lord. They have tents erected for temporary residences, and seem to anticipate that their sojourn on earth will be brief. They are said to be serious, mild, and grave in manner, and apparently uneasy. They have fixed on November 5th as the final day for their departure. This date is a little significant, and as it happens to be the day after the election in New York, it is surmised that they are Democrats disguised, waiting to hear the result of the election on Tuesday, when they will "go up"—as Democrats do every fall—Salt river, if not to Paradise.

The fact that the old Greeks used to laugh over the same good jokes that we do, leads Dr. Hopkins to remark that "Irish bulls were once calves in Greece."

An American newspaper recently quoted from Bingham's celebrated work the "Antiquities of the Church," as "Bingham's Iniquities of the Christian Church."

There is no public record of title to land in Great Britain. There is no such officer as recorder of deeds, which we have in every county in the United States, where the title to every foot of real estate in the whole Union can be found on record, and traced through all the changes of ownership, from the original Government patent or Colonial grant down to the present moment.

The real reason why there is no public record of land titles in Great Britain is that the land title commences in robbery and confiscation. The landlords dare not exhibit their title, as they know that its origin is force and fraud, and that might set the descendants of the rightful owners to thinking unpleasant and dangerous thoughts.

A Calfornia paper of late date contains the following advertisement: "Born—In Eureka, August 19, to the wife of D. Manheim, a son—a 15-pounder."

oct 29 EVANS & VonGLAHN.

To the friends of the Cape Fear Agricultural Society:

Your officers have labored dilligently to make the next Fair a success, such as is worthy the great city of Wilmington and the county which sustains it. They have perfected all the arrangements and now alone need the hearty co-operation of those desiring a success. They now appeal to the citizens of the city to come forward and do their duty. We admit that the financial crisis has dampened the ardor of those from whom the Association expected aid. But we ask the question: Has it really injured any? There have been no failures; we are all worse frightened than hurt. Then come forward like men and do your duty. Officers can't do everything without the aid of those really interested. Those men who have the reputation of their city at heart; those men who will really derive pecuniary advantage from the annual collection of a vast concourse of people, each man leaving in the city from $10 to $100. Let those who reap the profit come forward like iiberal men and contribute to its success. Deal fairly, and if benefitted do not underrate the advantage of the Fair to the city, in order that you may conceal from the world how much you may really profit by it. Let the croakers and the despondent, the over-ambitious and wilfully obstinate close their mouths for the time. Say a good word, and not be ever ready to complain of the management. Activity in managers is a very good thing, yet it requires a little liberality on the part of the wealthy, influential, the business men—running through all the various departments of city and commercial life. The commission merchant, the wholesale and retail merchant, the railroad man, the hotel and saloon keeper, the butcher, the baker, the artist, the banker, in fact, all and every one interested in the welfare of the city should come forward like men and contribute but a pittance to the support of the enterprise. And especially do we call upon the newspapers of the city and district to lend their aid to the enterprise. They have ever been liberal and public-spirited, and when they know and understand the difficulties of the management they will not be ready to blame. The State Fair was a success, but it was at an expenditure of $40,000.

The management only asks that those most interested shall contribute to make up such purses as may be within their means. It would ask of the Commission merchants to make up one, of the retail merchants one, of the rail road men one, of the turpentine buyers and distillers one, of the mill men and timber buyers one, of the cotton factors one, of the butchers one, of the hotel keepers one, saloon keepers one, and thus encourage the best horses to be brought to the fair. These need not be large in any instance, yet the producer will in a measure judge of the liberality of each by its encouragement of that holiday sport to which the city has invited the country.

Our premium list will be liberally provided for. The country has given evidence that the approaching fair will be the largest and most successful that we have yet held. As Christmas approaches the holiday will be kept in that spirit in which neighbor should meet neighbor on an high and festive occasion. With a spirit of generous rivalry the farmer will meet the farmer and vie with him in exhibiting specimens of those things which go to make up the wealth of the land. Here, too, fair hands will exhibit the work which will refine the rough nature of the beholder, while it will adorn the Floral department of the annual exhibtion. Here will the sturdy farmer exhibit his stock and while it is beheld and admired will his heart glow with pride as enconium after enconium is bestowed upon his care, his thrift and his possession. All will be one grand, one gay, one festive scene, made up from the energy and wealth of the sons of toil and beautified by the hand of art. Fostered and encouraged by the hand of commerce and adorned and made lovely by the bright eyes, smiling faces and fair presence of lovely woman.

Let no croaker endeavor to throw a damper upon the coming Fair. But, as friends, let all come forward and act their parts well and the Fair must be a success.

Mutiny on Board Ship.—The Captain of a German vessel lying in this port made complant to the city authorities against his mate, who had threatened to shoot him while on board the ship. The case will be adjudicated to-morrow.

The County Commissioners are through with the examination of complaints on taxes. No more complaints will be entertained until after payment of the taxes, as provided by law. The list of abatements will be ready to be given to the Sheriff in a day or two. Those interested should see to their tax matters and pay up.

United States Court.—The Court was engaged most of the morning in Bankruptcy matters, and at 1 P. M. called the Post Office robbery case of the United States vs. Wm. Woodbury and Taylor Evans. Mr. Solicitor Badger for the Government and his Honor assigned Messrs. McRae and London for the defense. Case not finished. Among the attorneys present we notice Col. J. W. Hinsdale, Mr. B. Fuller, Col. Nat. McLean, T. B. Keogh, Esq., and others. Mr. Jas. Heaton was present as one of the Deputy Marshals. There is but little business before the Court at this term.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Gold is 107⅞.

— Rain wanted.

— Our jail is too full.

— Don't seem like fall.

— Robberies are less frequent.

— Prepare for the Fair next month.

— "Hard times come again no more."

— Sound parties are not yet quite out of fashion.

— New River oysters do not lose their popularity.

— Weill has a splendid assortment of fine dress goods.

— Yankee apples are among the necessities now-a-days.

— Artificial stone on the corner hardens in forty-four hours.

— Mrs. Strock's millinery establishment was crowded yesterday.

— Many strangers in the city in attendance upon the U. S. Court.

— G. M. Arnold, Esq., is in the city. He is looking "as well as a fish."

— Runaways are of too frequent occurrence now-a-days to enlarge upon them.

— This is Guy Fawkes' day; he is the man "who tried to blow the King's parliament hup."

— The Tremaines are heading this way. They sing in Newbern Saturday next, and here on the 13th.

— When can we have a new bridge or a safe one over the railway on Fourth street? It is dangerous there now.

— With a Court on the fourth Monday in December and another in January, we expect lively times and a short winter.

Fair To-night.—The young ladies —very young—have their fair to-night, at the Seamen's Home, and not at Germania Hall as heretofore announced. Ice cream and all sorts of articles will be for sale. They certainly deserve success, and the object, aid for Memphis sufferers, is one that commends itself to every one. We hope to see a large attendance.

Verdict of the Jury.—Pusuant to adjournment, the Coroner's jury met at the Courthouse yesterday afternoon to further investigate the sudden death of the little boy Charles Austin. Several witnesses were examined but they threw but little light upon the matter. The evidence of the different witnesses did not vary materially and all went to prove that the child had been chastised several times by its adopted mother, and on Tuesday before its death it had been whipped. The jury's verdict was to the effect that the child's death resulted from injuries received at the hand of Ollie Becton. The alleged murderess was committed to jail yesterday evening in default of a bond of $5,000, for her appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

There will be a meeting of the Cape Fear Equal Rights Association at City Hall on Monday evening next, at half-past seven o'clock, to elect delegates to the Civil Rights Convention, to convene at Raleigh on November 25th, 1873.

The friends of Civil Rights, and all members of the Club, are invited to be present.

R. H. Leak, Sec'y.

The journal founded by the late Horace Greeley, in discussing the negotiations between the French and Germans during the recent Franco-German war, compares Regnier to Cornell Jewett, and observes that "there never was a war in which these volunteer negotiations did not swarm." The ghost of Horace, remembering the Greeley, Clay, and Jacob Thompson negotiations, if indeed ghosts do remember such trifles, ought to rise and rebuke the young men who thus revile the founder of their paper.

Two fatigued travelers, having to travel ten miles further, comforted themselves by the calculation that it was only five miles each.

Which is the oldest, Miss Antiquity, old Aunty Diluvian, Miss Ann Terior, Miss Ancestor, Miss Ann T. Mundane or Miss Ann T. Cedent?

New York, November 5.

The Times says that the returns, although incomplete, indicate a probable defeat of the Republican State ticket by a small majority.

In New York city and county the Democratic candidates for the Judiciary are elected. A Democratic Sheriff, City Clerk, and Coroners are elected.

Three Democrats and one Republican State Senator are elected from this city, while 11 Democrats and 6 Republican members to the Assembly are elected. A vacancy in the Aldermen is filled by the Democrats.

Returns from the country districts show the election of 16 Republican Senators, and the probable election of three more out of 32 State Senators, with 65 Republican Assemblymen sure, and probably 8 or 10 more out of 128.

An Arkansas City special to the Times says that both parties in that State claim a majority in the House, and the indications are that the result is very close.

A Milwaukie dispatch to the Times says that the returns from one-third of Wisconsin indicate the election of the Democratic ticket. The Democrats have gained eight votes in the Legislature.

The Times says: "Taking a general view of affairs, we cannot congratulate the Republicans of New York upon the results of yesterday. The Republicans cannot elect their ticket without voting for it, and next year we may have good nominations without delusive Democratic alliances."

The Tribune says: "The State Senate stands 15 Republicans, 15 opposition, and 2 doubtful, and the Assembly 72 Republicans to 56 Democrats.

A Kansas City dispatch to the Tribune says that the opposition carried the State, and an anti-monopoly Legislature has been chosen.

The World has a flag at the head of its columns. It estimates the Democratic majority in this State at not less than 15,000, and in this city at 35,000.

In Brooklyn, 5 Democrats and 4 Republican Assemblymen were elected.

The vote in Jersey City shows a gain of three Democrats from that city to the Assembly.

Erie county, 684 Democratic gain; Otsego county, 300 Democratic gain; Ulster county, 400 Democratic gain.

The World claims 15 Democrats and 17 Republicans to the Senate, and 65 Republicans and 63 Democrats to the Assembly.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.
